Talk the TIC 2019: Judging Rubric

Contestant Name:

How well did the speaker identify the topic and purpose of the presentation?
1   2   3   4   5

Was the appropriate motivational link between the topic and the target audience achieved?
1   2   3   4   5

How appropriate was the language used for the layman (too scientific, too esoteric, etc)?
1   2   3   4   5

How well did the speaker engage the audience?

Physical Dynamics (Eye contact, pacing, hand gestures, media)
1   2   3   4   5   6   7   8   9   10

Speech Dynamics (passion, voice inflection, transitions)
1   2   3   4   5   6   7   8   9   10

Did the speaker effectively reveal originality and creativity through development of the subject?
1   2   3   4   5   6   7   8   9   10

How well did the presenter describe the following Chiropractic components? Did they include subluxation, adjustment, nervous system, and innate intelligence in their presentation?

Philosophy
1   2   3   4   5

Science
1   2   3   4   5

Art
1   2   3   4   5

Please rate the overall organization of the presentation, the flow and personable connection with the audience.
1   2   3   4   5   6   7   8   9   10

Were the main points presented with supportive evidence and persuasion?
1   2   3   4   5   6   7   8   9   10

Was the message of urgency for everyone to experience chiropractic care relayed appropriately?
1   2   3   4   5   6   7   8   9   10

Lasting (Purpose) Impression: Was this speaker memorable?
1   2   3   4   5   6   7   8   9   10

Exceeded the 5 minutes Time Limit? _____   If yes, no need to score.

Total (_____/100)